

Hyunook Kwon

hkwon62@gatech.edu

(404) 819-0964

OBJECTIVE:

To obtain full-time job opportunity in entry level related to data analyst or data visualization for post-graduation

EDUCATION:

Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, GA

May 2015 – Present

- Candidate for Bachelor of Science in Computer Science
- Threads: Information Internetworks and People
- Part of Dean's List for Fall 2017

Graduation: December 2018

Georgia State University

August 2013 – April 2015

- Candidate for Bachelor of Science in Computer Science
- Honors College with Dean's List for Fall 2014

SKILLS:

Software:

Microsoft Office, Windows OS, R, Jigsaw, Tableau

Programming Languages:

Java, Python, C, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, SVG, D3

Communication:

Team Meetings, Presentations, Storytelling, Critical/Analytic Reports

Spoken Languages:

Korean – native, English – fluent

EXPERIENCE:

Sunflower Academy – Afterschool Teacher

Responsibility for this role is to communicate with K-grade students to have their academic career goals and responsibilities in check and to provide any necessary support.

ACTIVITIES:

Affiliation:

KCS (Korean Computer Science at Georgia Tech)

Volunteer:

Assisting teacher in Korean School

PROJECTS:

Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, GA

- Implemented working online database system using MySQL for CS4400 Database project
- Designed and created GoVolunteer, an infrastructure software that utilizes web browser and AWS to enhance volunteering work and experience, for CS3311/3312 Project Design courses. Capstone course for two semesters with team project members in an environment similar to formal business.